

THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

7 July 1976

Mr. John A. Hurley
Department of the Treasury
U. S. Customs Service
Washington, D. C. 20220

Dear John:

Thank you for your kind note concerning my new appointment. It will, indeed, be challenging, but there will be as many opportunities as there are problems and I look forward to it.

I was particularly interested to look over all the materials you sent me. You most certainly must be enjoying so far ranging a job. We must indeed get together early on to discuss some of these matters and I will be in touch.

Many thanks and all best wishes.

Faithfully yours,
